

OPEN ACCESS FUNDS IN ACTION

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
Boston College University Libraries	$25,000, provided by the Provost	February, 2014	To be determined	All Boston College faculty, researchers and currently enrolled students are eligible to apply for funding.	Peer-reviewed articles published in fully open access journals and accessible immediately on publication are eligible. The Directory of Open Access Journals and the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association will be used to vet the journals' quality and open access credentials. The watch list of publishers with suspicious practices will be consulted. "Hybrid" open access journals, are not eligible.	-- Authors who have external funding which can be used for publishing fees are not eligible. -- The annual funding limit for each author will be $3000. -- Authors who receive OA funding must also deposit the article in eScholarship@BC.	# Articles Approved: 13 # Articles Reimbursed: 13 # Unique Submitting Authors: 9 # Unique Departments: 5 # Unique Journals: 6 # Unique Publishers: 6 NOTES: Through June 30, 2014
Brandeis University Library & Technology Services	$25,000	October, 2013		LTS funding is available to faculty, staff and students. Only one author per article may apply.	Funding is available for open access journals that do not charge a fee for institutions, libraries or readers for access to the content, and do not have an embargo period for access. This includes: - Members of the Open Access Scholarly Publishing Association (OASPA) - All Journals in the Directory of Open Access Journals that allow author to retain distribution rights. - Hybrid journals that allow authors to retain distribution	In order to include as many authors as possible while covering typical costs LTS will support 100% of the supported charges with a limit of $3000.00 Only those fees associated with open access publishing are eligible for support. Costs for reprints, color illustration	# Articles Approved: 18 # Articles Reimbursed: 16 # Unique Submitting Authors: 13 # Unique Departments: 9 # Unique Journals: 14 # Unique Publishers: 8 NOTES: Through June 30, 2015

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
					rights.	fees, non-open access page charges, administrative charges and other fees are not supported. Articles whose underlying research was funded by grants that allow funds to be used for open access fees are not eligible for funding.
Brock University Library	$10,000	October, 2011	One-time fund established as part of OA Week 2011; renewed for an additional year in 2012	Brock University faculty members (full-time and part-time), currently registered graduate students and postdoctoral fellows.	The grant covers only the fees associated with open access publishing [costs for reprints, color illustration fees, non-open access page charges, administrative charges and other fees are not applicable.] Articles eligible for this grant are: peer-reviewed articles that have been accepted for publication in either a fully OA journal.	Up to $2,500 per article. Authors must affirm that they have not received funding or have received insufficient funding to cover OA dissemination costs. Each eligible applicant is entitled to one grant.	# Articles Approved: 16 # Articles Reimbursed: 16 # Unique Submitting Authors: 15 # Unique Departments: 9 # Unique Journals: 12 # Unique Publishers: 13 NOTES: Through June 30, 2014
Carleton Library/Office of the Vice President (Research & International)	$50,000 in combined contributions from the Library and the Office of VP Research; the Library has	May 1, 2002	The pilot project will be evaluated in relation to its contribution to Carleton's strategic, academic and research plans.	All Carleton University faculty, post-doctoral fellows, graduate students and full-time professional staff who are named as an author of a research article and who have	Articles accepted for publication after March 1, 2012 are eligible for this program. These must be peer-reviewed articles that have been accepted for publication in journals which are fully "Open Access". That is, all of the content of the	$2500 per article for fully Open Access journals and a cap on any one author of $5000 per year.	# Articles Approved: 47 # Articles Reimbursed: 47 # Unique Submitting Authors: 29 # Unique Departments: 12 # Unique Journals: 26 # Unique Publishers: 26 NOTES: Through June 30, 2015

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
	committed an additional $25,000 as of summer, 2015		Continuation of this initiative depends on the outcome of the pilot and the availability of sustainable base funding.	the lead responsibility for submitting this article to a peer-reviewed Open Access journal or conference proceedings are eligible to apply for funding. Funding will not be made available if any of the authors of the article are eligible for complete reimbursement of the article processing fees for this article through grants from a foundation, granting agency, or other institutions including Carleton.	entire journal is freely and globally available online immediately upon payment of the article processing fee, with minimal or limited copyright restrictions. Open Access articles are freely available for redistribution and reuse which means that anyone who has access to the internet may read, download, copy and distribute that article. In addition, to be eligible, authors must be publishing in a journal which: --is listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals --is a member of the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association or adhere to its Code of Conduct -- has a publicly available standard fee schedule -- has a policy to substantially waive fees in case of economic hardship
Carnegie Mellon University Libraries	Open-ended, with $45,131 disbursed through June, 2015	May, 2013		Carnegie Mellon faculty, research scientists, post-docs, and graduate students are eligible if (a) they are the corresponding author on the article and (b) they have no money	-- The publisher of the journal is a member of the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association (OASPA) or adheres to the OASPA Code of Conduct. The publisher does not appear on Beall's List of Predatory Open Access Publishers.	Maximum funding per article is $1500. Maximum funding per author per fiscal year is $3000. Unused amounts do not roll over to the next year.	# Articles Approved: 30 # Articles Reimbursed: 30 # Unique Submitting Authors: 25 # Unique Departments: 13 # Unique Journals: 20 # Unique Publishers: 13 NOTES: Through June 30, 2015

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
				from funders that allow grant funds to be used for Article Processing Charges (APCs).	OR -- The journal is a hybrid journal with a publicly available policy that clearly describes the transition strategy for changing the business model from subscription to open access. To date, only hybrid journals published by the Association for Computing Machinery (ACM) qualify for APC funding.
Colorado State University Libraries	$45,000 annually	December, 2012		CSU tenured/tenure track faculty	Journals should be listed in the DOAJ: Directory of Open Access Journals (www.doaj.org) and must NOT be listed on Beall's List of Predatory Open Access Publishers (scholarlyoa.com/publishers). In cases where a journal does not meet these criteria, authors will be asked to briefly explain why the journal is an appropriate venue, given one's discipline. Within six months of publication, the author must deposit the article into CSU's digital repository	Authors will be eligible for up to $2,000 of support per year for one article. Authors publishing in a journal that provides authors with an open access article option ("hybrid") will be eligible for up to $1,250 per year for one article.	# Articles Approved: 141 # Articles Reimbursed: 79 # Unique Submitting Authors: 89 # Unique Departments: 31 # Unique Journals: 73 # Unique Publishers: 32 NOTES: Through June 30, 2015
Columbia University Libraries/Information Services	Up to $25,000 for fiscal year 2010; up to $50,000	January 2010	All aspects of this program, including the amount of funding	Any Columbia faculty member, post-doctoral researcher, staff member, or student	Columbia Open-Access Publication (COAP) funds apply to article-processing fees for scholarly peer-reviewed articles. Only	COAP funds are intended to be a funding source of last resort and to support open access	# Articles Approved: 140 # Articles Reimbursed: 70 # Unique Submitting Authors: 193 # Unique Departments: 41 # Unique Journals: 41

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
	for fiscal year 2011		committed to the program, will be analyzed and reviewed on a regular basis.	author. Not currently available to Columbia affiliates including Barnard College, Teachers College, or Union Theological Seminary.	articles that are published in open-access journals are eligible. Journals with a hybrid open-access model or delayed open-access model are not eligible. Articles submitted for publication after January 1, 2010 are eligible for this program.	to articles whose research was not grant funded. Articles for which other publication funding is available are not eligible for COAP funds. This includes: -- Articles reporting on grant-funded research where the granted funds can be used for publication fees (whether or not the particular grant had budgeted for such fees and whether or not sufficient grant funds remain); -- Articles funded by an institution that itself pays publication fees on behalf of the author (such as Wellcome Trust). Authors may receive funding for up to $3,000 per year for all article-processing charges. Unused	# Unique Publishers: 17 NOTES: Through June 30, 2015

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
						amounts do not roll over to future years. The most an author can request for a single article is also $3,000. In the case of an article with multiple authors, each eligible author can apply for reimbursement for a prorated portion of the publication fee. An example: An article with three authors, two of whom are from Columbia, is to appear in a journal with a $3,000 publication fee. Each Columbia author may apply for reimbursement for $1,000. In the hypothetical case of an eligible journal with a $6,000 publication fee, each Columbia author could apply for reimbursement for a prorated portion of the

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
						$3,000 funding cap per article, or $1,000.
Concordia University Libraries/Office of Research	$50,000, including strategic funding from the Office of the President	June, 2011		The Fund is open to all full-time and part-time faculty members, staff, currently registered graduate students, and postdoctoral fellows affiliated with Concordia. The request for reimbursement must be made by the corresponding author of the article.	The article must be published in a fully Open Access journal. At this time, traditional subscription-based or 'hybrid' journals that offer an open access option for a fee are not eligible. Eligible Open Access journals will be listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals; be a member of the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association or adhere to its Code of Conduct; provide unfettered access to all peer-reviewed articles; have publicly available a standard article fee schedule; and have a policy to waive fees in the case of economic hardship. The Fund covers only the costs and fees associated with Open Access publishing. Costs for reprints, color illustration fees, non-open access page charges and other fees are not eligible for reimbursement.	The maximum amount that will be reimbursed to an author is $3000 per fiscal year from the Fund. Researchers who receive research funds that explicitly include publication or submission support will be required to use those funds before applying to the Open Access Author Fund. Fund recipients must enable the deposit of their article in Spectrum: Concordia University Research Repository.	# Articles Approved: 18 # Articles Reimbursed: 18 # Unique Submitting Authors: 13 # Unique Departments: 9 # Unique Journals: 110 # Unique Publishers: 9 NOTES: Data through December 31, 2012
Cornell University Library	$50,000, with support	September, 2009	All aspects of this program,	Available to any Cornell faculty, post-	Publication and processing fees for scholarly peer-	- Articles for which alternate	# Articles Approved: 90 # Articles Reimbursed: 85

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
	from the Provost's Office		including the amount of funding committed to the program, will be analyzed and reviewed on a regular basis. If the pilot project proves to be valuable to scholarly communication, COAP may receive continued funding. $50,000 was added to the fund in July, 2014	doctoral researcher, staff member, or student author.	reviewed articles in open-access journals meeting these requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals * Member of the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association or adherent to its Code of Conduct * Provide unfettered access to all peer-reviewed articles (journals with a hybrid open-access model or delayed open-access model are not eligible) * Publicly available standard article fee schedule. * Policy to waive fees in case of economic hardship. 	publication funding is available are not eligible for COAP funds. This includes articles whose research was funded by grants or gifts that allow grant funds to be used for article processing fees (regardless of whether that particular grant had budgeted for such fees). <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Reimbursement cap for a single article is $3,000. - Authors may receive reimbursement for up to $3,000 per year for all submission and publication charges. - Multiple Authorship: In the case of an article with multiple authors, each author is responsible for a prorated portion of any publishing fees. 	# Unique Submitting Authors: 65 # Unique Departments: 34 # Unique Journals: 38 # Unique Publishers:20 NOTES: Through June 30, 2015

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
						For example, for an article with three authors that is to appear in a journal with a $3,000 publication fee, each author is responsible for $1,000 of that fee. If two of the authors are Cornellians, each may enter an application for $1,000. If both apply, $2,000 will be sent to the journal. If the journal has a $6,000 publication fee, the $3,000 per article cap will apply and each Cornell author may only apply for $1,000.
Dartmouth College Library	N/A	Fall, 2009		Dartmouth faculty and graduate students.	Established, scholarly open access journals. Subscription-based journals that charge a fee, sometimes called an "author's choice" or "open choice" fee, to make single articles available by open access are not eligible. In addition, eligible journals must: - Be listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals	The limit for a single payment is set at $3,000. Individuals may be supported up to $3,000 per year in journal payments, in order to make funding available to the greatest number of authors. In the case of multiple authors, an individual	# Articles Approved: 45 # Articles Reimbursed: 45 # Unique Submitting Authors: 35 # Unique Departments: 11 # Unique Journals: 29 # Unique Publishers: 14 NOTES: Data through June 30, 2015

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
					(www.doaj.org) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Be a member of the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association or adhere to its Code of Conduct - Make their standard fee schedules publicly accessible - By policy, waive their fees in cases of financial hardship 	author's support will be set at a prorated portion of the publication fee, which will be set by dividing the fee by the number of authors.
Duke University Libraries, Duke University School of Medicine, and the Office of the Provost	$35,000	September, 2010	Subject to periodic evaluation	Duke faculty members, post-doc researchers, and graduate or professional students	Articles accepted for publication in a peer-reviewed, open access publication, as determined by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Listing in the Directory of Open Access Journals * Membership in the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association * Have policies and practices consistent with the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association Code of Conduct Only journals that are fully open access based on a published schedule of article processing fees are eligible. The fund cannot be used to support "hybrid" open access	Individual authors may receive a maximum of $3,000 reimbursement of article processing fees in an academic year, with a maximum per-article reimbursement of $2,000. Unused funds do not roll over to future years. When there are multiple eligible Duke authors for an article, each author is responsible for a prorated portion of article processing fees and can be reimbursed for that	# Articles Approved: 137 # Articles Reimbursed: 114 # Unique Submitting Authors: 123 # Unique Departments: 33 # Unique Journals: 81 # Unique Publishers: 17 NOTES: Through June 30, 2015

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
					publishing, where individual articles from journals that are generally subscription access only are made openly available when author fees are paid. Only journals that do not charge readers or institutions for access to peer-reviewed content are eligible.	amount, up to the annual cap. Articles that are supported by a gift or grant from a foundation, institution or agency that allows granted funds to be used for article processing fees are not eligible for reimbursement from COAPE funds .
Emory University Libraries	$25,000	September 1, 2012		Emory University faculty, post-docs, researchers and currently enrolled graduate and undergraduate students are eligible to apply for funds for open access fees for articles and books connected with their research activities at Emory. Preference is given to authors who have not been previously funded. In the case of an article or book with multiple authors, each author is	The article or book must be published with an open access publisher that does not charge readers or institutions for access to the publication. To be eligible, journal publishers must be listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals (DOAJ) and book publishers may be listed in the Directory of Open Access Books (DOAB). Also, a publisher must be a member of Open Access Scholarly Publisher's Association (OASPA) or meet its Code of Conduct. Journals or books with a hybrid model (some content by fee and some content	Open access publishing funds are awarded on a first come, first serve basis to a maximum reimbursement of $1,500.00 per article or book. Funds may be used for open access publishing and processing fees, including open access page charges. Funds may not be used for reprints, color illustration fees, non-OA page charges, permissions fees, web hosting for self-archiving, or other expenses not	# Articles Approved: 54 # Articles Reimbursed 37 # Unique Submitting Authors 48 # Unique Departments 22 # Unique Journals 30 # Unique Publishers 14 NOTES: Through June 30, 2015

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
				responsible for a prorated portion of any publishing fees. Due to limited funds, any given author is limited to one fund reimbursement per fiscal year.	open access) or delayed open access are not eligible for this fund. Articles and books must be fully available open access at the time of publication.	directly related to open access fees. Articles or books for which alternative funding is available are not eligible for reimbursement from this fund.
Florida State University Libraries	$25,000	December, 2013		Florida State University faculty, post-docs, researchers and currently enrolled graduate and undergraduate students are eligible. Preference is given to authors who have not been previously funded.	To be eligible, journal publishers must be listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals (DOAJ) and book publishers may be listed in the Directory of Open Access Books (DOAB). Also, a publisher must be a member of Open Access Scholarly Publisher's Association (OASPA) or meet its Code of Conduct. Journals or books with a "hybrid model" or delayed open access are not eligible for this fund.	Maximum reimbursement is $1,500.00 per article or book. Due to limited funds, any given author is limited to one fund reimbursement per fiscal year. Any open access item published with support from this fund must also be submitted to DigiNole Commons.	# Articles Approved: 25 # Articles Reimbursed: 24 # Unique Submitting Authors: 31 # Unique Departments: 17 # Unique Journals: 19 # Unique Publishers: 15 NOTES: Through June 30, 2015
George Mason University Libraries	$25,000 annually	October 2012		All Mason faculty members, registered graduate students, and post-doctoral fellows are eligible.	The journal must: -- Be listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals -- Hold membership in the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association or demonstrate its adherence to the OASPA Code of Conduct -- Publish its standard fee schedules, and	Individuals eligible to apply for publisher payment of an APF may receive up to $3,000 per fiscal year, with a $3,000 cap per article. Fees are pro-rated for multi-authored articles. That is, if	# Articles Approved: 37 # Articles Reimbursed: 33 # Unique Submitting Authors: 36 # Unique Departments: 14 # Unique Journals: 26 # Unique Publishers: 17 NOTES: Through June 30, 2014

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
					-- Waive its article processing fee in cases of financial hardship, as evidenced by its public policy. Support for a hybrid journal open access fee will be considered if: -- the publisher is a non-profit society or institution, -- access to the journal's proprietary content is available only through subscription with the society or institution and not through a for-profit aggregator like Proquest, Ebsco, or Elsevier, -- the fee and its use are clearly indicated on the journal or publisher website, and -- the fee is waived for authors from developing nations or those with demonstrated financial hardship.	more than one author from Mason applies for funding support for the same article, the article processing fee will be divided equally, up to the $3,000/article cap.
Grand Valley State University Libraries	$35,000/yr	Fall 2011	The Fund will be reviewed annually adjustments made as necessary.	- Applicant must be a current GVSU tenure-track, visiting, affiliate and adjunct faculty, staff, or currently registered graduate student. - Applicant must be	- Funding is available for newly published (within the past six months), peer reviewed articles in open access or hybrid journals that charge a publication fee associated with the cost making an article freely available.	- There is no limit to the per article amount that can be funded, but an author may not receive more than $3,000 in one year. - Authors with grant	# Articles Approved: 50 # Articles Reimbursed: 50 # Unique Submitting Authors: 86 # Unique Departments: 28 # Unique Journals: 45 # Unique Publishers: 25 NOTES: Through June 30, 2015

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
				listed as one of the authors, and article must indicate GVSU affiliation.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Costs for reprints, color illustration fees, non-open access page charges, administrative charges and other fees are not applicable. - Articles must be made freely available on the web at the time of initial publication, with no embargo period. - Eligible journals must be listed in the Directory of Open Access and Hybrid Journals or meet the DOAJ's selection criteria. The Libraries has a selective list of open access and hybrid publisher fees for quick reference. - Eligible journals must make their fee schedule publicly available online. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> support or external funding to cover publishing fees are ineligible. - For articles with multiple authors, each author is responsible for a prorated portion of any publishing fees. For example, for an article with three authors that is to appear in a journal with a $3,000 publication fee, each author is responsible for $1,000 of that fee. If two of the authors are from GVSU, each may separately apply for $1,000. If both apply, up to $2,000 of the fees will be reimbursed, with $1,000 being applied to each person's $3,000 annual award limit.
Harvard University Library/Office of Scholarly Communication	$50,000	Fall, 2009	None	Funds are available for researchers at Harvard schools that have instituted an open-access policy. Currently, these are:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Reimbursable article-processing fees may include publication fees (charges levied on articles accepted for publication, including page charges), and 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - $3,000 per article - There is no limit on the number of articles reimbursed, except that authors 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> # Articles Approved: 68 # Articles Reimbursed: 57 # Unique Submitting Authors: 59 # Unique Departments: 23 # Unique Journals: 31 # Unique Publishers: 17

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
				FAS (including SEAS), HLS, HKS, HGSE. Faculty, researchers, staff, and students may request reimbursement for articles connected with their research activities at these schools. - All authors agree to post a copy of their article in the institutional repository.	submission fees (charges levied on articles submitted for publication). Eligible fees must be based on a publication's standard fee schedule that is independent of the author's institution. - Articles for which alternative funding is available are not eligible for reimbursement. - The venue of publication must be an established open-access journal, that is, a journal that does not charge readers or their institutions for unfettered access to the peer-reviewed articles that it publishes. Journals with a hybrid open-access model or delayed open-access model are not eligible. To be eligible, a journal must meet these additional requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Be listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals, * Be a member of the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association or adhere to its Code of Conduct, * Have publicly available a standard article fee schedule, 	may receive reimbursement for up to a total of $3,000 per academic year for all article processing fees. Reimbursement can cover 100% of fees up to the cap. Unused amounts do not roll over to future years. Exceptions to the $3,000 cap may be made based on availability of funds. - In the case of an article with multiple authors, each author is responsible for a prorated portion of any publishing fees.	NOTES: Data through June 30, 2015

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
					and * Have a policy to substantially waive fees in case of economic hardship.
Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI) Library	$47,000 initially, with support from the IUPUI University Library, the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Research, IU School of Dentistry and the Robert H. McKinney School of Law; a second 2-year funding cycle of $50,000 began in mid-2015	July, 2013	The pilot will be evaluated after two years	Funds are available for IUPUI faculty.	To be eligible, a journal must meet these additional requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Be listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals (unless the journal is too new for DOAJ eligibility), • Be a member of the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association or adhere to its Code of Conduct, • Have publicly available a standard article fee schedule. Journals with a hybrid open-access model or delayed open-access model are not eligible.	No cap on per-article funding. Articles for which alternative funding is available are not eligible for use of the fund. A onetime exception to this rule will be made for authors who did not include dissemination fees in the budget of the grant or contract.	# Articles Approved: 45 # Articles Reimbursed: 27 # Unique Submitting Authors: 36 # Unique Departments: 29 # Unique Journals: 33 # Unique Publishers: 17 NOTES: Data through June 30, 2015

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
						disbursement will be monitored to ensure diverse participation across the schools. As an added service, the IUPUI University Library will deposit a copy of funded articles in the IUPUIScholarWorks
Johns Hopkins University Libraries	$72,000	FY 2012	January, 2015	Because the request for support exceeds the funds available, this year the OAPF is limiting grants to Hopkins students, postDocs and early-career faculty. The applicant must be an author on the paper in question.	-- Must be published in a peer-reviewed fully Open Access journal (defined as any journal that appears in the Directory of Open Access Journals). -- Cannot be used to pay for publishing in 'hybrid' Open Access journals. -- Must be immediately, openly accessible at publication; no delayed publishing or embargo periods are accepted.	-- Up to $1,500 per article. -- Up to $1,500 per year per author. -- A copy of all funded articles will be made publicly in the Johns Hopkins University institutional repository, no later than three (3) months after receiving this award or three (3) months post-publication. Authors will be contacted by JScholarship staff to complete this task.	# Articles Approved: 44 # Articles Reimbursed: 44 # Unique Submitting Authors: 45 # Unique Departments: 24 # Unique Journals: 24 # Unique Publishers: 13 NOTES: The Fund closed in January, 2015

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
MIT Libraries	Pilot funding for FY2011		This is a pilot project subject to periodic evaluation	Current MIT faculty	Open-access journals that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Are peer reviewed * Are listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals * Have policies and practices consistent with the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association Code of Conduct * Make their standard fee schedules publicly accessible * Waive their fees in cases of financial hardship Articles in journals that charge an annual subscription fee, including journals that use a delayed open-access model, or offer an “open choice” option to make a particular article open access are not eligible. Articles reporting on research that was supported by funders that allow research funds to be used for publication fees (e.g. NIH) are not eligible for this funding, whether or not publication costs were specifically included in the grant. This fund is intended to be a last resort for use when no alternative source	The subsidy is limited to $1,000 per article, regardless of the number of authors.	# Articles Approved: 31 # Articles Reimbursed: 30 # Unique Submitting Authors: 23 # Unique Departments: 17 # Unique Journals: 21 # Unique Publishers: 9 NOTES: Data through July 20, 2015

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
					of funding is available.
Memorial University Libraries	$125,000 in 2015/16. Values are in Canadian dollars. This funding covers both OA memberships and APCs.	Summer, 2011	None	All Memorial, faculty, graduate students, staff, post-docs, emeriti, and honorary research profs who have had a peer-reviewed article accepted to an Open Access journal that meets the funding criteria. Where an article has multiple authors, at least one of these authors must be a Memorial affiliated researcher.	The fund will cover Author Processing Charges (also called author's fees or page fees) for articles that have been accepted to "gold" open access journals that meet the following criteria: a) Journal content is peer-reviewed. b) Journal does not charge subscription fees for any of its content. All articles are immediately available online at no cost to the reader. c) Author retains copyright over his or her work. (e.g. The journal uses Creative Commons licensing or similar.) A copy of the funded paper will also be made available through the Memorial University Research Repository within a year of initial publication.	Memorial Libraries will fund a maximum of $3000 per year for each researcher. Researchers with no other funding source to cover APCs will be given priority over those with research funding available for this purpose.	# Articles Approved: 234 # Articles Reimbursed: 210 # Unique Submitting Authors: 166 # Unique Departments: 34 # Unique Journals: 133 # Unique Publishers: 37 NOTES: Data through June 30, 2015

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
					The fund will not cover open access author's fees in gated or hybrid journals.
Northwestern University Library	$20,000	October, 2013		Faculty members, post-doc researchers, graduate or professional students and any staff who are authors of articles accepted for publication in a peer-reviewed, open access publication.	Articles accepted for publication in peer-reviewed journals. Publication will be supported in any peer-reviewed journal that is listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals, or whose publisher is a member of the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association and is published in a fully open access format based on a published schedule of article processing fees. Hybrid publication model is not supported. The fund supports article processing fees or publishing fees. The fund does not cover submission fees or personal or institutional subscriptions or sponsorships.	The fund will provide $3,000 per Northwestern researcher per year. As funds allow, exceptions will be considered for requests above this annual cap. For intramural collaborations, each author will be responsible for a prorated portion up to a total per-article cap of $3,000.	# Articles Approved: 11 # Articles Reimbursed: 11 # Unique Submitting Authors: 10 # Unique Departments: 11 # Unique Journals: 11 # Unique Publishers: 8 NOTES: Data through June 30, 2015
Simon Fraser University Library	$50,000 annually	January, 2010	None	SFU authors who are faculty, staff or graduate students are eligible to use the Central fund. Undergraduate students working under the supervision of a faculty member are also eligible.	Eligible journals will be those in the Directory of Open Access Journals, or those whose editorial policies meet the criteria for inclusion in DOAJ. The fund will also cover article processing charges for book chapters, provided the entire publication is open access. The fund does not cover	It is anticipated that SFU authors will include OA publishing charges in grant applications where they are eligible, and will first use such funds before applying for reimbursement from the central OA	# Articles Approved: 303 # Articles Reimbursed: 303 # Unique Submitting Authors: 197 # Unique Departments: 25 # Unique Journals: 112 # Unique Publishers: 35 NOTES: Data through June 30, 2015

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
					optional article processing charges from hybrid journals. The fund does not cover additional charges such as for including color plates, long articles, submission fees, or excess page charges.	fund. The Library will work with the Office of Research Services to raise awareness of grant eligibility for OA fees and funder mandates. The amount each SFU author may claim during one fiscal year is limited to $10,000.
Southern Illinois University Carbondale Morris Library	$26,000 for 2014-15	Fall 2011	The Fund is a pilot project which will be reviewed annually	Grants are available to faculty, including nontenure track faculty, and graduate students.	- Funding is available for open access journals that do not charge a fee for institutions, libraries or readers for access to the content, This includes: · Members of the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association (OASPA) · All journals in the Directory of Open Access Journals that allow authors to retain distribution rights · Hybrid journals that allow authors to retain distribution rights.	- For fully open access journals: $2000 per article and per year per author - For hybrid journals: $1500 per article and per year or 50% of the Open Access fee, whichever is less. - Articles whose underlying research was funded by grants that allow funds to be used for article-processing fees (regardless of whether that particular grant budgeted for such	# Articles Approved: 79 # Articles Reimbursed: 42 # Unique Submitting Authors: 46 # Unique Departments: 23 # Unique Journals: 58 # Unique Publishers: 30 NOTES: Data through June 30, 2015

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
					<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Journals must not have an embargo period for access. - Costs for reprints, color illustration fees, non-open access page charges, administrative charges and other fees are not applicable. 	fees) are not eligible for funding.
Texas Woman's University	$30,000 annually from the Provost	Fall 2015		Current full-time TWU faculty (clinical or tenure track).	To be eligible for support, a work must be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - A peer-reviewed journal article, scholarly monograph, conference proceeding, or data set. - Published in a journal or platform that is openly available immediately upon publication after charges are paid. - Published in a traditional subscription based or 'hybrid' journal that offers an open access option. - Accepted for publication at the time of application for funding support. - Not eligible for funding by a grant that would cover 	Fund provides awards of up to $3000/article per author/contact, person/lead or author group in an open access journal. Funds will be distributed by semester: Fall (August - December), Spring (January - April), Summer (May - July).	# Articles Approved: 10 # Articles Reimbursed: 9 # Unique Submitting Authors: 10 # Unique Departments: 6 # Unique Journals: 9 # Unique Publishers: 7 NOTES: Through December 31, 2015

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
					publication charges. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The publication must have a standard article fee schedule publicly posted. Costs for reprints, color illustration fees, non-open access page charges, administrative charges and other fees are not supported. The article must be available immediately upon publication.
Libraries and Cultural Resources, University of Calgary	$100,000/yr (CAN)	June 2008	None. The Fund is in its second year and is expected to continue.	University of Calgary faculty, staff, graduate students, and postdocs. The first author on articles should be from the University of Calgary.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Publication fees for peer-reviewed articles that have been accepted in journals which are fully open access, where all of the content (articles, editorials, letters, appendices, data, etc), in all formats (HTML, pdf, etc), in all issues (current and older), is openly accessible. - Charges for journals which are not fully open access but allow individual articles to be made freely available online immediately upon payment of the submission fee ('hybrid') are not eligible as of June, 2014. - Journals/publishers that have differential charges for Creative Commons licenses (e.g. APCs for CC-BY licenses 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - If eligible, the entire fee is covered. - Authors must exhaust other funding avenues (e.g., grants) before turning to the Fund. 	# Articles Approved: 784 # Articles Reimbursed: 713 # Unique Submitting Authors: 571* # Unique Departments: 89* # Unique Journals: 365* # Unique Publishers: 62* NOTES: Through June 30, 2015 * indicates that this figure encompasses both applications for the fund that have been accepted, as well as those that have been rejected by fund administrators as out of scope

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
					are higher than those for CC-BY-NC licenses) will not be eligible for coverage. - Deposition of funded articles in the University of Calgary institutional repository is mandatory.
UC Berkeley Research Impact Initiative (co-sponsored by UC Berkeley's Vice Chancellor for Research and the University Librarian)	$54,000; an additional $44,000 in funding was added in September, 2014	January 21, 2008	None	UC Berkeley faculty members, post-docs, and graduate students	- Articles must be made freely available at the time of initial publication. No embargo periods. - Article may be published in any open access publication, - Hybrid journals offering a paid access option are not eligible as of September, 2014.	- Maximum reimbursement of $3000 per article for fully open access publication. - Maximum reimbursement of $1500 per article for hybrid journals that provide authors with an open access option. - Authors must stipulate that they have no other available funding (e.g., grants) before turning to the Fund. - Authors are limited to $6,000 in BRI funds each year.	# Articles Approved: 451 # Articles Reimbursed: 256 # Unique Submitting Authors: 422 # Unique Departments: 72 # Unique Journals: 231 # Unique Publishers: 44 NOTES: Data through June 30, 2015
UC Davis		October 2012	The Fund is a pilot that will be re-evaluated at the end of 2014/15 academic year.	UC Davis Academic Senate, Academic Federation members, faculty, post-docs, residents, fellows, and graduate	- Articles must be made freely available at the time of initial publication. No embargo periods. - Article may be published in	Up to $1,000 per article.	# Articles Approved: 36 # Articles Reimbursed: 36 # Unique Submitting Authors: 39 # Unique Departments: 21 # Unique Journals: 22 # Unique Publishers: 13

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
				students	any fully open access publication (no hybrid journals are eligible).		NOTES: Data through March 31, 2014. The Fund is no longer operative.
UC Irvine Libraries	$15,000	Fall, 2012	The Fund is a pilot that will be re-evaluated at the end of 2014/15 academic year.	UC Irvine faculty members, post-doctoral scholars, researchers, and staff	Funds are available to pay open access/ processing fees for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Fully open access journals: fees to publish in journals in which all articles are immediately available open access - Hybrid open access journals: fees to publish in journals in which the default is for articles to only be available to subscribers, but authors may pay to make individual articles open access - Open access monographs: fees for publishing open access ebooks with reputable publishers - Open data archiving: fees charged by a data repository for archiving open access data Articles must be made freely available at the time of initial publication. No embargo periods.	$3000 is the maximum any one applicant may be awarded in one year. The person who completes the application form will be considered the applicant for that article. UCI Libraries Open Access Publishing Fund will cover a maximum of $3000 for any one article in a fully open access journal - journals in which all articles are published open access. Some examples include PLOS journals in the sciences (particularly biology and medicine) and SAGE Open in social sciences and humanities. To search for open access journals, use the box to the right.	# Articles Approved: 30 # Articles Reimbursed: 30 # Unique Submitting Authors: 39 # Unique Departments: 17 # Unique Journals: 32 # Unique Publishers: 21 NOTES: Data through March 31, 2014. The Fund is no longer operative.

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
						The pilot Fund will cover a maximum of $1500 for any one article in a hybrid open access journal.
UC Merced	$15,000	January, 2013	The Fund is a pilot that will be re-evaluated at the end of 2014/15 academic year.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - UC Merced faculty - UC Merced lecturers and others with academic appointments - Currently enrolled UC Merced graduate students Priority will be given to articles with multiple authors from UC Merced, and those that represent collaborative or interdisciplinary research. Authors with grant funds that can be used for open access charges are not eligible.	Only fully open access journals (immediately available with no embargo period) listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals will be funded.	Article Publication Charges (APCs) and Open Access Fees (OA Fees) up to $3,000/article.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> # Articles Approved: 12 # Articles Reimbursed: 11 # Unique Submitting Authors: 21 # Unique Departments: 10 # Unique Journals: 12 # Unique Publishers: 12 NOTES: Data through March 31, 2014. The Fund is no longer operative.
UC Riverside		March, 2013	The Fund is a pilot that will be re-evaluated at the end of 2014/15 academic year.	UC Riverside faculty, post-doctoral scholars, researchers and graduate students	Funds are available to pay open access fees and article publication charges for fully open access journals: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fees to publish in journals in which all articles are immediately available open access 	UR-OAF provides UC Riverside authors reimbursement up to $1000 per article for those publishing in fully open access journals (in which all articles are	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> # Articles Approved: 5 # Articles Reimbursed: 4 # Unique Submitting Authors: 7 # Unique Departments: 5 # Unique Journals: 7 # Unique Publishers: 7 NOTES: Data through March 31,

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
					<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Articles must be made freely available at the time of initial publication, with no embargo periods. Articles published in “hybrid open access journals” in which only some articles are open access and a publication fee is usually paid to the publisher do not qualify for these funds.	published as open access). There is a cap of one article per author per year. The person who completes the application form will be considered the applicant for that article.	2014. The Fund is no longer operative.
UC San Diego	$20,000	October, 2012	The Fund is a pilot that will be re-evaluated at the end of 2014/15 academic year.	UC San Diego faculty, post-docs, residents, fellows, and graduate students and other affiliates are eligible to apply for funds.	Funds are available to pay open access fees and article publication charges for fully open access journals: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Fees to publish in journals in which all articles are immediately available open access - Articles must be made freely available at the time of initial publication, with no embargo periods. (Funds from the pilot are not available to cover color charges, page charges, illustration charges, or submission charges.)	UC San Diego Open Access Fund Pilot funds will cover a maximum of $1000 for any one article in a fully open access journal - journals in which all articles are published open access. $1000 is the maximum any one applicant may be awarded in one year. The person who completes the application form will be considered the applicant for that article.	# Articles Approved: 41 # Articles Reimbursed: 36 # Unique Submitting Authors: 60 # Unique Departments: 23 # Unique Journals: 35 # Unique Publishers: 20 NOTES: Data through March 31, 2014. The Fund is no longer operative.
UC San Francisco	$20,000	December 2012	The Fund is a pilot that will be re-evaluated at the end of	Any current UCSF faculty (salaried), post-doc, fellow, resident, graduate	Publications must be made freely available at the time of initial publication. Embargo periods for open access will	Open access journal articles processing charges (APCs):	# Articles Approved: 26 # Articles Reimbursed: 22 # Unique Submitting Authors: 39 # Unique Departments: 20

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
			2014/15 academic year.	student, or professional student (SOD, SOM, SON, SOP) may apply for funds. Faculty without salary are not eligible. Because we have a limited amount of funds for this pilot, we ask that you only apply for funds if you have no alternative funding source such as grant or departmental funds to cover the open access (OA) publishing fee.	not be covered. OA articles may be either in Fully OA journals or in "hybrid" OA journals - subscription journals whereby authors pay a fee to make their article OA (often referred to as "open choice"). - Journal articles must be published in a peer-reviewed, scholarly journal. - OA journals must be listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals. - The journal must apply policies and practices consistent with the OAPSA's Code of Conduct. - Books must be peer-reviewed. - Theses and dissertations must be associated with the UCSF Graduate Division.	- Up to $2,000 per article in a fully OA journal. - Up to $1,000 per article in a hybrid OA journal. Open access books: - Contact the Library for more information about fees. Open access to your individual electronic thesis or dissertation in Proquest's database - $95 (fee for one ETD). A maximum of $2,000 per individual and $4,000 per lab will be reimbursed for the duration of the pilot.	# Unique Journals: 28 # Unique Publishers: 15 NOTES: Data through March 31, 2014. The Fund is no longer operative.
UC Santa Barbara	$30,000	Fall, 2012	The Fund is a pilot that will be re-evaluated at the end of 2014/15	UCSB faculty members, post-doctoral scholars, graduate students, researchers,	- Fully open access journals - Fees to publish in journals in which all articles are immediately available open	The fund will pay up to $3,000 per publication and has a cap of one publication per	# Articles Approved: 19 # Articles Reimbursed: 11 # Unique Submitting Authors: 26 # Unique Departments: 13 # Unique Journals:14

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
			academic year.	lecturers, scientists, librarians, and other non-Senate academic appointees are eligible to participate in the pilot. We request that authors with funding from external grants or contracts not utilize pilot project funds in order to allow others to share in the benefit of open publications.	access. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Hybrid journals (subscription journals with an open access option) which offer publication fee discounts to UC authors. - Open access monographs - fees for publishing open access ebooks with reputable publishers. - Open data archives - fees charged by a data repository for archiving open access data. - Open access conference proceedings - fees to publish papers in fully open access conference proceedings. Funds are for unpublished research. Publications must be made freely available at the time of initial publication with no embargo periods. Funds from the pilot are not available to cover color charges, page charges, illustration charges, or submission charges. As with all journals, authors are encouraged to publish their research results in high quality publications.	author per year. This is a pilot program and is subject to funding restraints.	# Unique Publishers: 10 NOTES: Data through March 31, 2014. The Fund is no longer operative.

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
UC Santa Cruz	$15,000	Fall, 2012	June, 2014.	UC Santa Cruz faculty, researchers, lecturers, post-docs, and currently enrolled graduate students who do not have grant funds that can be used for open access charges are eligible to apply for funds from the UCSC Open Access Fund pilot.	Article publication charges (APCs) or Open Access Fees (OA Fees): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - for previously unpublished articles - in fully open access journals (in which all articles are available open access) or in hybrid open access journals (in which the default is for articles to only be available to subscribers, but authors may pay to make individual articles open access); - where articles are made immediately available, with no embargo period. 	UCSC Open Access Fund will cover a maximum of $3000 for any one article in a fully open access journal - journals in which all articles are published open access. The pilot Fund will cover a maximum of $1500 for any one article in a hybrid open access journal. Hybrid journals charge readers a subscription fee, but allow authors to pay a fee to make a single article open access. $3000 is the maximum any one applicant may be awarded in one year. The person who completes the application form will be considered the applicant for that article.	# Articles Approved: 23 # Articles Reimbursed: 15 # Unique Submitting Authors: 31 # Unique Departments: 13 # Unique Journals: 14 # Unique Publishers: 10 NOTES: Data through June 30, 2014. The Fund is no longer operative.
University of Colorado Boulder Libraries	The fund was instituted as a pilot in 2012 with an	September, 2012		Current CU-Boulder faculty, staff, and students may request funding up to $2,000	Any journal that provides free, immediate, online access to the full text of all research articles and follows	This fund supports open access to research articles where publication	# Articles Approved: 34 # Articles Reimbursed: 34 # Unique Submitting Authors: 32 # Unique Departments: 20

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
	initial $20,000. An additional $34,000 has been added to the fund since then.			per year to pay for article-processing or publishing fees for full open access journals.	accepted best practices for open access publishing is eligible. This includes, but is not limited to, journals listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals. At a minimum, journals must be compliant with the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association's Code of Conduct. "Hybrid" open access journals that provide free online access for only some articles will not be eligible for funding.	fees are not covered by grants or other funding sources. Authors are encouraged to include publication fees in grant requests whenever possible. Funding is limited to $2,000 per article regardless of the number of authors.	# Unique Journals: 24 # Unique Publishers: 14 NOTES: Through June 30, 2015
University of Florida Provost's Office	$120,000	July 1, 2010	Funds were exhausted in January, 2013. Replenishment is presently under discussion.	All University of Florida faculty, post-doctoral researchers, staff members, and students.	Publication fees in open-access journals that provide free, immediate, online access to the full text of research articles without restrictions. Eligible journals include those listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals, or publishers that hold membership in the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association, and/or are compliant with the Association's Code of Conduct. A smaller stipend will be paid for selecting a paid open	* Up to $3,000 per article will be provided to pay publication fees in open-access journals which provide free, immediate, online access to the full text of research articles without restrictions. * Up to $1,500 per article will be provided to pay for selecting a paid open access option from a hybrid publisher.	# Articles Approved: 198 # Articles Reimbursed: 198 # Unique Submitting Authors: 158 # Unique Departments: 62 # Unique Journals: 105 # Unique Publishers: 40 NOTES: Through January 15, 2013; Fund is longer active

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
					access option from a hybrid publisher.	* UFOAP funds are intended to support open access to research articles where publication fees are not covered by grants or other funding sources. In order to encourage inclusion of publication fees in future grant applications, articles resulting from awarded grants that allow for budgeting of article processing fees are excluded unless the grant application was submitted prior to the establishment of the UFOAP, July 1, 2010. * Funding for multi-authored articles will be prorated. If the processing fee is $3,000 and there are four UF authors, each may apply for $750. For fees exceeding the $3,000 cap per article, each

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
						UF author may apply only for his/her prorated portion not to exceed the $3,000 yearly cap for each researcher, or $1500 per article for paid-access.
University of Iowa Libraries	$75,000, with support from the Office of the Provost	April, 2013		Any University of Iowa faculty member (including research /clinical faculty), researcher, graduate or professional student is eligible, but except under extraordinary circumstances, undergraduate students are not.	Funding is available only for open access fees, not page charges, etc. Articles must be published in full open access journals, which allow immediate, free access to all their articles upon publication. The journal title must appear in the Directory of Open Access Journals or the publisher must be a member of the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association. Alternatively, funding will be considered for articles published in hybrid journals, provided the publisher appears in the Sherpa/RoMEO list of Publishers with Paid Open Access Options, or is a member of the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association.	Up to $3,000 for full open access publications; $1,500 for hybrid open access publications.	# Articles Approved: 107 # Articles Reimbursed: 84 # Unique Submitting Authors: 80 # Unique Departments: 37 # Unique Journals: 73 # Unique Publishers: 28 NOTES: Through June 30, 2015
University of Kansas Libraries	$50,000, with support from the University of Kansas	October, 2012	Two year pilot	Faculty, graduate students, post-docs, and staff on the Lawrence and Kansas City campuses during	Submitted-for-publication or accepted-for-publication peer-reviewed articles in open access journals. An "open access journal" is a	Funding covers costs of article processing fees only (no page or color charges), up to $2000 per article.	# Articles Approved: 61 # Articles Reimbursed: 61 # Unique Submitting Authors: 96 # Unique Departments: 45 # Unique Journals: 40

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
	Provost, The University of Kansas Medical Center Executive Vice Chancellor, and the Offices of Research at The University of Kansas and University of Kansas Medical Center			year one.	journal listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals and published by a publisher who holds membership in the Open Access Scholarly Publisher's Association. Subscription-based journals that charge additional fees to provide open access to articles (hybrid journals) will not be considered for funding in year one.	Funds will not be encumbered for articles that are still being written. Already-published articles are ineligible.	# Unique Publishers: 31 NOTES: Through June 30, 2015
University of Maryland Libraries	$10,000 initially; additional $7,500 added mid-year	September, 2013		Any UMD faculty member, post-doctoral researcher, or currently enrolled graduate or undergraduate student whose article has been accepted may apply for funding.	Funds are available for open access journals, which are journals that do not charge a fee for institutions, libraries or readers for access to the content, and do not have an embargo period for access. This includes: - All journals in the Directory of Open Access Journals that allow authors to retain distribution rights - Members of the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association (OASPA) or demonstrate its adherence to the Code of Conduct	Article cap – maximum funding per article is $3000; Author cap – one funded article per fiscal year	# Articles Approved: 13 # Articles Reimbursed: 13 # Unique Submitting Authors: 13 # Unique Departments: 9 # Unique Journals: 9 # Unique Publishers: 8 NOTES: Through June 30, 2014

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
					- Journals that have publicly available a standard article fee schedule - Journals that have a policy to substantially waive fees in case of economic hardship
University of Massachusetts Amherst	$25,000	July, 2014		Any current UMA faculty member, post-doctoral researcher, staff member, or graduate student author who has no other source of funding for open access publication charges. Authors whose grants include funding for publication charges, or who have support from other venues, must apply those funds first.	Eligible publications and publishing venues must be fully and immediately open access. Publications in “hybrid open-access” (which also charge subscription fees) or “delayed open-access” journals and monographs are not eligible. Journals or monograph publishers must be members of the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association, OR demonstrably adhere to the OASPA Code of Conduct. Journals or monograph publishers must have a standard article fee schedule, publicly accessible, and a policy to waive fees in cases of economic hardship or economic equity.	Funding is available annually for any one author up to $3000. Funding is available for any one paper up to a maximum of $3000. Support for non-UMA collaboratively authored papers will be available on a prorated basis. All works will be deposited on UMA Amherst ScholarWorks.	# Articles Approved: 13 # Articles Reimbursed: 13 # Unique Submitting Authors: 13 # Unique Departments: 10 # Unique Journals: 8 # Unique Publishers: 6 NOTES: Through January 30, 2016
University of Michigan Library and the Office of the Provost	$30,000	September, 2010	The Fund stopped accepting new applications in	All University of Michigan faculty, post-doctoral researchers, graduate	Peer-reviewed scholarly articles that are published in open-access journals are eligible. Anyone may apply,	Up to $3000 per submission. However, if some requirements are	# Articles Approved: 68 # Articles Reimbursed: 44 # Unique Submitting Authors: 60 # Unique Departments: 17

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
			May, 2012. It is no longer operating.	and professional students, staff members, and students.	but the Library prefers to support work: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *where the author retains copyright. *which will appear in fully open journals, and is accessible immediately upon publication. *for which grant funding could not be applied to publishing costs. *that the author commits to depositing in open access repositories (e.g. Deep Blue). *for which the open access publication fee is less than $1500. 	not met, then a smaller portion will be provided based on the following criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Retaining Rights: If you will not retain copyright or the right to distribute the work we will fund the lesser of $1000 or 50% of the publisher's open access fee. *Publish in fully open journals: An open journal is one for which all peer-reviewed content is available freely to readers. If the work will appear in a "hybrid" journal — one for which some of the peer-reviewed work is only available to paid subscribers — we will fund the lesser of $1000 or 50% of the publisher's fee. *Assure access is immediate upon 	# Unique Journals: 58 # Unique Publishers: 30 NOTES: Through September 15, 2012; Fund is no longer active

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
						publication: If access to the published article is not immediate we will fund the lesser of $1500 or 50% of the publisher's fee. If the publisher will delay access longer than 12 months, we will not provide any funding. * Use grant funding wherever possible: If your grant funding could have been applied to publishing charges, we will fund the lesser of $1500 or 50% of the publisher's fee. We will only do this once for an author/group of authors, since such fees should be included in future grant applications.
University of Minnesota Libraries	$20,000 annually, with funds from the budget of the University Libraries and	Spring, 2012		Any University of Minnesota faculty, researchers, post-docs, graduate students, or staff	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Funds are available for peer-reviewed journal articles, scholarly monographs, conference proceedings, and data sets. - Funds may be used only to cover open access 	No limit for full OA articles. "Hybrid" journals will be covered up to 50%.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> # Articles Approved: 42 # Articles Reimbursed: 42 # Unique Submitting Authors: 41 # Unique Departments: 28 # Unique Journals: 29 # Unique Publishers: 12

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
	the Office of the Vice President of Research				publication and submission fees. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Author fees for open access journals (as determined by listing in the Directory of Open Access Journals, membership in the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association, or adherence to Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association Code of Conduct) will be covered in full. Author fees for “hybrid” journals will be covered up to 50%. - Funds may not be used for publications that do not make works fully openly available immediately upon publication. Authors receiving funds must deposit a copy of the publication in an approved open access repository, such as the University Digital Conservancy (the University of Minnesota’s institutional repository) or a recognized discipline repository (e.g., arXiv, AgEcon, PubMedCentral, etc.)		NOTES: Through June 30, 2015
University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill (Sponsored by the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Research)	$20,000 From the Vice Chancellor for Research;	March 2005	July, 2013	UNC-CH faculty, post-doctoral researchers, and graduate or professional students without grant funds	Publishing charges related to journals offering free immediate open access to articles. Journals offering “open choice” or “hybrid”	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Award maximum is $1000 per article. - Authors must exhaust other 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> # Articles Approved: 82 # Articles Reimbursed: 71 # Unique Submitting Authors: 63 # Unique Departments: 12* # Unique Journals: 47

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
Research and Economic Development until fall 2009; subsequently continued via library funding)	$8,000 From Health Sciences Library $8,000 from University Library			to cover publication fees	options are eligible provided the articles are immediately accessible.	funding avenues (e.g., grants) before turning to the Fund.	# Unique Publishers: 19 NOTES: Data through July, 2013; Fund is no longer active
University Libraries University of North Carolina at Greensboro	$11,500	Fall 2011	The Fund is a pilot project by the University Libraries and the Office of Research & Economic Development.	Full-time faculty, full-time EPA employees, and graduate students are eligible to apply	- The article must be published in a peer-reviewed open-access journal.	- Reimbursement will not exceed $1,000 per article. - Reimbursement will be limited to one award per fiscal-year per author. - Authors are expected to exhaust all other grant or contract funding sources available to them before applying for support from the Open Access fund.	# Articles Approved: 20 # Articles Reimbursed: 20 # Unique Submitting Authors: 19 # Unique Departments: 14 # Unique Journals: 13 # Unique Publishers: 12 NOTES: Through June 30, 2015

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
University of Oklahoma - Norman	$20,000 annually	Late 2013		Any current University of Oklahoma-Norman regular faculty member, post-doctoral researcher, staff member or student author. Preference is given to authors who have not been previously funded.	Article-processing fees for scholarly, peer reviewed articles in true open access journals, listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals. Publisher must be a member of the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association or adhere to its Code of Conduct. Articles with a hybrid or delayed OA model are not eligible through this fund.* The journal must have a publicly available standard article fee schedule published and should have a policy to waive fees in case of economic hardship.	Authors may receive funding up to $1,500 per fiscal year for publishing and processing fees, including open access pages charges; unused amounts will not roll over to future years. Authors agree to retain their copyright and to post a copy of their work in the University's institutional repository, SHAREOK.	# Articles Approved: 14 # Articles Reimbursed: 14 # Unique Submitting Authors: 14 # Unique Departments: 4 # Unique Journals: 9 # Unique Publishers: 6 NOTES: Data through June 30, 2015
University of Oregon Libraries, Office of the Provost	Up to $50,000	Spring 2009	June, 2014	- Applicant must be a UO tenure-related faculty member, non-tenure-related career faculty member (including ranked officers of instruction, research, or administration), post-doc, or currently enrolled graduate student ready to submit a completed article for publication. - Applicant must be	Reimbursement will cover only direct costs for open access publication (not the cost of reprints, color illustration fees, non-OA page charges, web hosting for self-archiving, etc.). Manuscript must be a peer-reviewed scholarly article or monograph (including original research, review articles, etc.). Funding is available for publication in open access peer reviewed scholarly journals that charge a publication fee. Funding is also available for peer	- Up to 100% of author fee for publishing a peer-reviewed manuscript in an open access journal. Maximum reimbursement will be $1,000 per article. - Maximum reimbursement will be $3,000 per person over the period of this pilot project.	# Articles Approved: 45 # Articles Reimbursed: 41 # Unique Submitting Authors: 31 # Unique Departments: 9 # Unique Journals: 21 # Unique Publishers: 12 NOTES: The Fund has been retired as of June, 2014.

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
				listed as one of the authors, and article must indicate UO affiliation.	reviewed scholarly monographs. Articles must be made freely available on the web at the time of initial publication (no embargo periods). At this time funding is not available for articles published using an "open choice" option in journals that are primarily subscription based rather than open access. Journals listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals (http://www.doaj.org/doaj) are assumed to qualify. For publication in a journal not listed there, additional information to allow assessment of whether the journal meets our criteria will be required as part of the application process.	Reimbursement will cover only direct costs for open access publication (not the cost of reprints, color illustration fees, non-OA page charges, web hosting for self-archiving, etc.) - Reimbursement will be available only in cases where the authors do not have adequate grant or contract funding specifically designated to cover author fees. Authors with funding designated to cover publication costs such as author fees from grants, contracts, or other institutional funds are asked to use those funds first and to allow others to share in the benefit of open publications.
University of Ottawa	$100,000	January,	The Author	The Fund is open to	Eligible open access journals	The Fund covers	# Articles Approved: 580

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
	(CAD), with financial support from the University, the Library and most Faculties.	2010	Fund working group (whose members represent the Office of the Vice-President, Research, the Library and all contributing faculties) will evaluate this initiative periodically, and recommend any changes to the Fund's criteria and administration procedures, when appropriate.	all full-time and part-time faculty members, staff, currently registered graduate students, postdoctoral fellows and adjunct professors affiliated with the University of Ottawa. Researchers working for University of Ottawa Research Centres and Institutes, and Affiliated Research Institutes are also eligible.	must be listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals or meet the DOAJ's selection criteria. Eligible hybrid and traditional journals must make articles available immediately and allow self-archiving of the publisher PDF immediately upon publication (no embargo period imposed). The fee schedule must be publicly available online. The Fund also covers open access books.	only the costs and fees associated with open access publishing. Costs for reprints, color illustration fees, non-open access page charges, administrative charges and other fees are not applicable. Researchers are entitled to apply for two (2) reimbursements per fiscal year. The Fund will reimburse open access book fees up to a maximum of $2,500 per publication. Applicants must first use funds received through other research grants that are intended to cover publication or submission fees. Should the grants not allocate sufficient funds to cover such costs, an application can be	# Articles Reimbursed: 474 # Unique Submitting Authors: 361 # Unique Departments: 59 # Unique Journals: 313 # Unique Publishers: 74 NOTES: Through June 30, 2014

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
						submitted to this Fund.
University of Pittsburgh Library System	No limit	July 1, 2012	None	Funds are available for faculty, staff, postdoctoral associates, and students served by the ULS and the BARCO Law Library. This includes those at all of the University of Pittsburgh schools except the six schools in the health sciences: Dental Medicine, Health and Rehabilitation Sciences, Nursing, Medicine, Pharmacy, and Public Health.	The venue of publication must be an established open-access journal, that is, a journal that does not charge readers or their institutions for unfettered access to the peer-reviewed articles that it publishes. To be eligible, a journal must meet these additional requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Be listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals (unless the journal is too new for DOAJ eligibility) OR • Be a member of the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association or adhere to its Code of Conduct, • Have publicly available a standard article fee schedule. The ULS is an institutional member of Hindawi Publishing Corporation, which publishes over 300 Open Access journals in a variety of disciplines. The ULS' membership allows for all authors served by the ULS who publish in Hindawi journals to do so free of author charges. There is no	No limit on per-article reimbursement fees. Reimbursable article processing fees may include publication fees (charges levied on articles accepted for publication, including page charges). Eligible fees must be based on a publication's standard fee schedule that is independent of the author's institution. Reprint fees are not eligible. Articles for which alternative funding is available are not eligible for reimbursement. This includes articles reporting research funded by a gift or a grant from a granting agency, foundation, or other institution (including the University of Pittsburgh itself)	# Articles Approved: 121 # Articles Reimbursed: 121 # Unique Submitting Authors: 113 # Unique Departments: 61 # Unique Journals: 75 # Unique Publishers: 4 NOTES: Through June 30, 2014

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
					need for authors to apply to the ULS for publication funds. Journals with a hybrid open-access model or delayed open-access model are not eligible.	that allows granted funds to be used for article processing fees (whether or not the particular grant had budgeted for such fees and whether or not sufficient grant funds remain) and articles funded by an institution that itself pays article processing fees on behalf of the author (such as NIH).
University of Rhode Island	$15,000, split between the Libraries and the Vice President for Research and Economic Development	January, 2014	The Fund will be evaluated after the 2014-2015 academic year.	The URI OA Fund is available to full-time faculty of the University of Rhode Island.	Eligible journals must: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -- Be listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals. -- Be a member of the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association or adhere to its Code of Conduct. -- Provide unrestricted access to all peer-reviewed articles in the journal. (Subscription-based journals that charge a fee, sometimes called an "author's choice" or "open choice" fee, to make single articles available open access are not eligible, nor are subscription journals that make articles available open 	The maximum dollar amount that the URI OA Fund will reimburse for a single article is $3,000. The URI OA Fund is a limited resource intended to support open access publishing across the university. We expect researchers to request funding for open access publication from their funding agency if they can do so. These funds are intended to be a	# Articles Approved: 4 # Articles Reimbursed: 4 # Unique Submitting Authors: 2 # Unique Departments: 2 # Unique Journals: 3 # Unique Publishers: 3 NOTES: Through June 30, 2015

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
					access after a time delay or "embargo.") -- Have publicly available a standard article fee schedule. -- Have a policy to waive fees in cases of economic hardship.	funding source of last resort and to support open access to articles whose research was not grant-funded.
University of Tennessee, Knoxville Office of Research and the University Libraries	Initial allocation of $20,000, augmented by regular contributions from the Office of Research and Engagement and the University Libraries	October, 2008	Extends until funding is exhausted and will be evaluated	Any UTK faculty member, post-doctoral associate, or currently enrolled graduate student.	- Article processing fees levied by peer-reviewed open access publishers such as the Public Library of Science and BioMedCentral. - Any open access publication will be considered, provided that the journal is freely available at the time of initial publication with no embargo periods. - Hybrid journals that make only selected articles open access are not included in the pilot project.	Funds are awarded on a first-come, first-served basis to a maximum of $3,000 per article. - Authors are requested to negotiate lower publishing fees when possible. -Authors with grant support to cover open access publishing are requested not to apply.	# Articles Approved: 151 # Articles Reimbursed: 151 # Unique Submitting Authors: 91 # Unique Departments: 34 # Unique Journals: 81 # Unique Publishers: 37 NOTES: Through June 30, 2015
University of Toronto Libraries	$45,000 initially, with an additional $10,000 committed after launch	October, 2012		The Fund is open to all full-time and part-time faculty members and librarians, continuing staff, currently registered undergraduate and graduate students, and postdoctoral	To be eligible for reimbursement, the article, chapter or monograph must be published in a fully Open Access format. At this time, traditional subscription based or 'hybrid' journals that offer an open access option for a fee are not eligible.	The maximum amount that will be reimbursed to an author is $3000 per fiscal year from the Fund. Researchers who have received a research grant that	# Articles Approved: 54 # Articles Reimbursed: 54 # Unique Submitting Authors: 49 # Unique Departments: 27 # Unique Journals: 20 # Unique Publishers: 16 NOTES: Through June 30, 2014

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
				fellows affiliated with the University of Toronto.	Eligible Open Access journals will either be listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals, be a member of the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association or adhere to its Code of Conduct. Journals must provide unfettered access to all peer-reviewed articles and make publicly available a standard article fee schedule. The library reserves the right to refuse a request if the publisher appears to be a “predatory open access publisher”.	explicitly includes publication or submission support are required to use those funds before applying to the Open Access Author Fund. Additionally, those faculty and librarians who have access to departmental or PERA funds should make use of these funds prior to making a request for reimbursement through the Open Access Author Fund. Fund recipients must provide a copy of their article/book chapter for submission to T-Space, the University’s Research Repository.
University of Utah Library	$83,994	May, 2011	The Fund closed in 2014.	University of Utah faculty, staff members, postdoc, or currently enrolled graduate or undergraduate	a) Journals which are fully Open Access. Content of the entire journal is freely available online immediately upon payment of the article processing fee. Fully Open	The maximum dollar amount that the OAP Fund will reimburse for a single article during the trial period is	# Articles Approved: 50 # Articles Reimbursed: 37 # Unique Submitting Authors: 47 # Unique Departments: 16 # Unique Journals: 33 # Unique Publishers: 26

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
				students on main (excluding law) campus.	Access journals from publishers who have few such journals are also eligible. b) Hybrid journals which are not fully Open Access but which allow individual articles to be made freely available online immediately upon payment of the submission fee. To be eligible for funding in this category, the publisher must plan to make (in the next subscription year) reductions to the institutional subscription prices based on the number of Open Access articles in those journals.	$3,000. Researchers are expected to request funding for open access publication from their funding agency before applying to the OAP Fund.	NOTES: Through February, 2014
University of Virginia Library	$15,000 per fiscal year	July, 2013		Eligible authors include all faculty, researchers, staff and students served by the U.Va. Library system (this excludes those served by the Health Sciences, Law and Business libraries).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Journal must be peer-reviewed and listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals. - Journal should generally adhere to the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association (OASPA) 'Code of Conduct'. - Hybrid journals will not be eligible for funding at this time. - Article must be available immediately upon publication, with no embargo. - Other content types such as 	Eligible individuals may receive up to $2000 per article, and $3000 total per year. Funds will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis.	# Articles Approved: 20 # Articles Reimbursed: 20 # Unique Submitting Authors: 32 (includes co-authors) # Unique Departments: 6 # Unique Journals: 13 # Unique Publishers: 9 NOTES: Through June 30, 2015

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
					books are eligible, if they are peer-reviewed. - Author must agree to submit a copy of the post-review publication to UVa's institutional repository, Libra. - Only publishing fees will be covered. - Authors must have exhausted all available grant funds that may be eligible to be used for the article processing fee.
University of Wisconsin – Madison Libraries	$50,000, supported by unrestricted gift funds to library	July 2005	January 31, 2014	- Any University of Wisconsin-Madison faculty and researchers - Reimbursement will be limited to one award per fiscal year per author.	- Up to 50% for publishing in a fully open access journal as defined by inclusion in DOAJ; up to 30% for publishing in journals that allow an open choice option. - Reimbursement will not cover the cost of reprints, color illustration fees, page charges, etc.	- Up to 50% for publishing in a fully open access journal (as defined by inclusion in the Directory of Open Access Journals). - Up to 30% for publishing in a journal that provides authors with an open access option. - Reimbursement will not exceed $1,500 per article. - Authors must cover the balance of the open access charges through grants or other	# articles approved: 37 # articles reimbursed: 37 # unique submitting authors: 30 # unique departments: 21 # unique journals: 22 # unique publishers: 19 NOTES: Data above cover date range from 2/8/08 – 6/30/13. Fund is no longer active.

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
Utah State University Libraries	$30,000	October, 2011	All aspects of this program, including the amount of funding committed to the program, will be analyzed and reviewed on a regular basis.	Faculty and graduate students	Peer reviewed journal articles. Fully OA journals are preferred, but consideration will be given to hybrid options on a case by case basis. Preference will also be given to those who are able to demonstrate matching funds from their department, college, or an outside granting agency. Authors must also deposit a copy of the funded article in the USU DigitalCommons.	funds. There is no limit on the per-article reimbursement fee amount. Funds will be available on a first-come-first-served basis during the pilot phase. Funding Preference will be given to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Those who are able to demonstrate matching funds from their department, college, or an outside granting agency. Without a match, full funding is not guaranteed. - Those who publish in fully open access journals 	# Articles Approved: 46 # Articles Reimbursed: 33 # Unique Submitting Authors: 50 # Unique Departments: 17 # Unique Journals: 39 # Unique Publishers: 28 NOTES: Through June 30, 2015
Virginia Tech Libraries	$50,000 for FY 2014-15, in partnership with the Office of Senior Vice President and Provost and the	August, 2012		All faculty, staff, graduate, and undergraduate students are eligible.	Funds are available to underwrite article processing fees for scholarly peer-reviewed articles accepted for publication in an open access or hybrid OA journal. A journal's publisher must be a member of the Open Access Scholarly Publishers	Support is limited to $1500.00 per article and $3000.00 per author per year. For papers with multiple Virginia Tech co-authors, the program would still subsidize the same total amount of up	# Articles Approved: 106 # Articles Reimbursed: 94 # Unique Submitting Authors: 117 # Unique Departments: 71 # Unique Journals: 60 # Unique Publishers: 29 NOTES: Data through June 30, 2015

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
	Office of the Vice President for Research				Association (OASPA) or comply with OASPA's Code of Conduct. For fully OA journals, the journal must be listed in the Directory of Open Access Journals. For hybrid OA journals, the publishers must have reduced institutional subscription prices, or plan to reduce prices this next year, based on the number of open access publications in the journals.	to $1,500 per article but it would be prorated among each of the authors. Authors must have no other sources of funding available.
Wake Forest University Z. Smith Reynolds Library	$13,000 (library contribution is half of total fund)	Early 2008	None, although program is regularly assessed and evaluated	Available to WFU Reynolda campus faculty. Authors who receive external funding support that could be used for publishing costs (e.g., NIH grants or contract awards) are still eligible for WFU funds, but must use all available external funds before seeking WFU funds.	Eligible publications include peer-reviewed journal articles and book chapters. Articles and book chapters must be publicly available immediately upon publication. Articles and book chapters may be published in either Open Access or hybrid journals (traditional journals that offer a per-article Open Access option for an additional fee). Full OA journal publishers must either be listed in the DOAJ: Directory of Open	- No limit on size of request faculty can make.	# Articles Approved: 27 # Articles Reimbursed: 27 # Unique Submitting Authors: 23 # Unique Departments: 13 # Unique Journals: 24 # Unique Publishers: 18 NOTES: Data through June 30, 2015

Sponsor	Value	Date Established	Date Limit, If Any	Who is Eligible?	What is Eligible?	Reimbursement Levels	Progress/Success To Date
					Access Journals (http://www.doaj.org) or be members of the Open Access Scholarly Publishers Association (http://oaspa.org). Copies of the final published version of funded publications must be archived and made publicly available through WFU's institutional digital archive, WakeSpace.		